Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 1, 2019

Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29; Psalm: 68;
Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24; Luke 14:1, 7-14

HUMILITY

Humility is a virtue we don't see much in our times. It seems that bragging, swaggering, and arrogance dominate our fashion for everything and our Internet conversations. Who hasn't been irritated by the "trolls" who try (usually with bad grammar and poor spelling) to start an online fight with those whose opinions do not align with theirs? Our stores, catalogs, and online shopping sites are full of useless items geared in use and price to the very rich, as ordinary, useful things seem to fade off the sales scene. As the rich get richer, the poor get poorer and the middle class is fading away. What is the antidote to this? Humility is a good place to start. Devotion to God is worth more than riches. "The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling. God gives a home to the forsaken; God leads forth prisoners to prosperity." Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Our Parish Center and CFF Offices will be closed on Monday, September 2nd for Labor Day.

Question of the Week:

Jesus often used parables to teach about the Kingdom of God, inviting us to use our imaginations to see people, life, and the world in new ways.

The parable that Jesus teaches in this Sunday's Gospel is challenging us to see differently. How does this parable challenge us to see differently?
