Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 15, 2019

Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14; Psalm: 51;
1 Timothy 1:12-17; Luke 15:1-32

LOST AND FOUND

Welcome to "Lost and Found Sunday"! Just in case being in church makes us proudly consider ourselves especially religious, today's Gospel suggests that we'd be wiser to admit that we're sometimes lost. Then we'll eventually be happily counted among Jesus' "found," because today Jesus focuses on a lost sheep, lost coin, lost son. Jesus does so because the Pharisees and scribes, proudly considering themselves especially religious, "began to complain" that Jesus "welcomes sinners and eats with them." So Jesus warns them—and us—to stop judging others. Marvel instead that God's amazing grace has found us! Indeed, we should become Jesus' friends lovingly trying to find others. So Exodus asks, if God "relented in punishment" and pardoned us, shouldn't we forgive fellow sinners graciously? Even Paul admits his "arrogance" as "foremost among sinners." We too, happy at being "mercifully treated," should share with everyone else Jesus' unflinching patience.

First Reading: "Why should your wrath blaze up against your own people, whom you brought out of Egypt?"

Psalm: I will rise and go to my father.

Second Reading: The grace of our Lord has been abundant.

Gospel: There is great rejoicing in heaven and among the angels when a sinner repents.

Question of the Week:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells us three stories about something or someone being lost and then found.

Who are the three people who are seeking or searching in these stories?

What do these seekers teach us about God?

What do these stories teach us about sin and forgiveness?

Catechetical Sunday, Sept 15

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith. Thank you for supporting our catechetical ministry and please continue to pray for our families, youth, children and our catechists.

SUPPORT OUR RETIRED PRIESTS

There are two opportunities in the upcoming weeks to help support the Archdiocese's retired priests.

First, there will be a special collection on September 21 and 22 in parishes, including ours. Secondly, the St. John Vianney Luncheon for the Priests Retirement Fund takes place on October 11. Lunch begins at 11:30 am, preceded by a social hour starting at 10:30 am, in the Cathedral Conference Center. This annual event is one of the highlights of the year in the Archdiocese. Please make your reservation by filling out a brochure found in the vestibule and turn in to the Parish Center.
