Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 29, 2019

Amos 6:1a, 4-7; Psalm: 146;
1 Timothy 6:11-16; Luke 16:19-31

HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

If you have questions, please contact Felisa Cepeda 650-583-4131 x2 or email cff@mdssf.org.

Question of the Week:

To sin by commission is to commit an act that directly hurts another. To sin by omission is to stand by idly while someone is suffering. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a story that describes the sin of omission.

What did the rich man do with his money? What did Lazarus, the poor man, do? What did Lazarus want from the rich man? What happened to each man after he died?

October is the month of the holy Rosary. Please join our CFF families, children and catechists on October 8th at 6:15pm or 7:30pm in the church to pray the Living Rosary. What is a Living Rosary? A living Rosary is where each bead of the Rosary is represented in the physical form by a person and those assembled recite the prayers together. We need 66 adults and children to make a complete rosary. Please join us!

The Daughters of St. Paul, women religious, who communicate Christ using all forms of media, will be present at our parish after all the Masses on the weekend of October 5-6, 2019. The Sisters have a wide variety of Bibles, books, movies, music, Rosaries and other gifts, for both children and adults. Look for the sale in the vestibule of our church. Credit Cards accepted.
